

Mrs. Lamia BEN MAHMOUD
CEO of Tunis Re

Mrs. Lamia Ben Mahmoud has a very wide experience in the insurance field for more than 33 years. She has been the Chief Executive Officer of Tunis Re, since 2009. Prior to moving to Tunis Re, she was the General Manager of the insurance regulation structure of « the Comité Général des Assurances » (Tunisia's insurance regulatory body).

Her professional life was closely involved around the insurance department of the Tunisian Ministry of Finance for over Seventeen (17) years as she served as Manager, insurance supervisor, Head of Legislation department.

Mrs. Lamia Ben Mahmoud is an unshakable pillar in the Tunisian insurance market; She was President of the intermediary's accreditation commission of insurance in the Ministry of Finance. She has also served as Government Commissioner in the Consultative Insurance Commission.

She has a professional repute that spans across the entire African continent. She goes down into the annals of history as the third woman to serve as President of the African Insurance Organisation.

She is equally member of Executive Committee of the Arab War Risks Insurance Syndicate (AWRIS) and member of Executive Committee of the RVS association of Monte Carlo.

She holds a Master's degree in economics and management, and a post-graduate degree in Insurance